The mission of Friends of Cambridge Rindge and Latin School (FoCRLS) is to develop, support, and enrich the academic and social development programs at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School and to support the alumni of CRLS and its predecessor schools. FoCRLS promotes achievement and community investment in the future of CRLS, its current students, and its graduates. FoCRLS is a 501(c)3 non-profit association.

Friends of CRLS is a proud recipient of the 2013 Education Award of the Cambridge NAACP.

Since 2006, Friends of CRLS has raised over $700,000 in donations from families, alumni, friends, local businesses, corporations, and foundations to provide an array of opportunities for CRLS students, grads, and faculty.

Faculty Innovation Grants: 161 teachers and other faculty since 2007 have received grants of up to $1,000 each to energize the learning experience for their students.

Student Travel Fellowships: 54 fellows since 2010 have received awards toward international and domestic school trips.

Unsung Heroes Awards: 480 awards – 16 each school term – have been presented to students showing emerging leadership qualities.

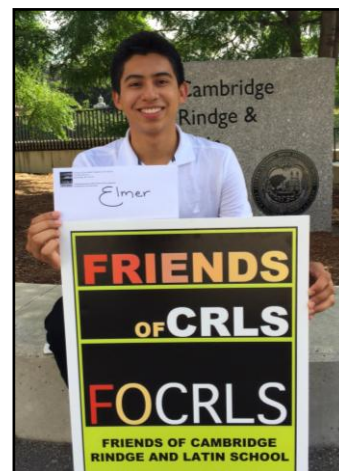

Faculty Distinction Awards: 40 faculty members have been honored since 2007; each year, four are selected by graduating seniors to honor for positive impact made on their years at CRLS.

The “It Takes a Village” College Success Program (ITAV): since 2012, grads have benefited from the support of alumni and community career mentors and scholarships through the college years.
