The Impact of Violent Media and Child Development

Fletcher Maynard Academy (FMA)
225 Windsor Street
Wednesday, February 10th
6:00-8:00 p.m.

Our children are exposed to media constantly throughout the day. More and more, younger and younger children are spending time in front of a television, computer, cell phone or tablet. Much of the media our children are exposed to is fraught with violence. How does all of this exposure to violent media impact our children? How does the age of our children impact what they see and learn? What can parents do to keep their children from violent media?

These questions and others will be the focus of our workshop: The Impact of Violent Media and Child Development.

Presenter Background: Marc McGovern is a Licensed Individual Clinical Social Worker (LICSW) with over 20 years of experience working with children and families. Marc is currently the Clinical Support Counselor at Farr Academy in Cambridge, a therapeutic day school for children struggling with emotional/behavioral and educational challenges. Marc has been presenting this workshop for 10 years as a way to help parents better understand the impact of media on their child's development.
