

Be All Right:

Teens and substance abuse

CRLS Parent Workshop Series

Thursday, April 16 (6 - 8 p.m.)

CRLS Falcon's Nest, 2nd Floor
459 Broadway, Cambridge

Join us for an interactive workshop for parents.

Learn about the health risks of marijuana and other substances, hear the facts about non-cigarette tobacco products (and how they're marketed to youth), and get advice on how to talk with your teens.

Featuring:

Dr. Kevin Hill

McLean Hospital, Division of Alcohol and Drug Abuse and Harvard Medical School

Katherine Connelly

Metro Boston Tobacco Free Community Partnership at Health Resources in Action

Open to all Cambridge upper school & high school parents and students. Light refreshments will be served.

To RSVP, contact Greta Hardina at
