School Site Council 2016-17

The CSUS School Council meets monthly to discuss and advise the Head of School on matters pertaining to school curriculum and the teaching and learning environment, the School Improvement Plan, and the discretionary budget.

The School Council, by law, must have an equal representation of parents and staff members. Parents elect their own representatives for two-year terms. At present, the school seeks at least three parent/caregivers interested in running for a two-year term. All current parents are eligible; parents of 8th grade students without younger siblings will serve for a one-year term if elected. The meetings are open to all interested parents, caregivers and community members. All parties present can propose and discuss agenda items. Elected representatives can vote.

The meeting schedule for 2016-17 is as follows. All meetings will be from 6:30 to 8pm in Rm. 312 9/15, 10/19, 11/17, 12/14, 1/19, 2/16, 3/16, 4/27, 5/18, 6/15.
