

girls who

CODE

Join our weekly club at the Cambridge Public Library and learn how to build an app, design a video game, and change the world through code!

Girls Who Code is a national non-profit organization leading the movement to inspire, educate, and equip girls with the computing skills to pursue 21st century opportunities.

Who is it for?

This program is open to anyone who identifies as a girl! It is a teen program, for participants aged 13-18.

When is it?

This program is scheduled to run every Wednesday, 4:00 to 6:00 PM from October 11, 2017 until December 20, 2017 (Except November 22).

Where is it?

In the Beech Room (big glass room right by the entrance) in the Main Branch of the Cambridge Public Library.

Will I need to bring a computer?

No! The library will provide computers (nice new Chromebooks).

Is it free?

Yes!

How do I register?

Please register in person at the Teen Room desk in the Main Library, or by phone at 617-349-4027. Registration is limited to 12 participants.