

MLK BULLETIN

Tuesday, February 23rd

Stay tuned every Tuesday for the MLK Bulletin

Thank you to the Chinese New Year Committee and students for hosting such a memorable Chinese New Year Assembly! I heard so many wonderful comments about the student skits, songs, lion dance, and of course, food. Thank you also to our families for the donations necessary for this event. Your support enabled us to host a truly outstanding event.

*

Friends of the M.L. King School invites everyone to the Scholastic Book Fair! The book fair will run Monday through Friday (March 1 to 5) from 7:30AM to 4:30PM daily. Remember that this is also the last week to bring in money for the Spare Change contest. All funds will be used toward giving every student a free book from the Fair. Thank you for your help.

Looking Ahead

Thursday, February 25th

Mass20/20's Chris Gabrieli and students tour our classrooms.

Wednesday, March 3rd

Superintendent Jeff Young will visit our school for our School Council Meeting, 5:30PM, Library

Tuesday, March 9th

Early Release Day (2PM)
Parent Conferences (3-4PM), (3-5PM for our Middle School families)

Wednesday, March 10th

Parent Conferences (6-7:30PM)

More information is also available online at www.cpsd.us/mlk

Report Card Signatures

You should have received your child's report card on Friday, February 12th. Please make sure to sign the attached receipt form and survey to your child's homeroom teacher. We are very interested in your feedback as we seek to improve communication and clarity on achievement.

School Council Change of Date

Please note a change in our March School Council from Tuesday, March 30th to next Wednesday, March 3rd. We will have Superintendent Jeff Young in attendance.

School Council will be from 5:30PM-7PM in the library. We hope you can make it.