

MLK BULLETIN

Tuesday, November 10th

Stay tuned every Tuesday for the MLK Bulletin

What a great turnout for last Friday's annual Character Day! Students selected one character from a book that they read to "impersonate" and summarized their character to our visiting families. Pictures from the event are posted on our website: www.cpsd.us/MLK. Families, thank you for your support and to our teachers for organizing this fun literacy event!

Parent-Teacher Conferences will be next Wednesday and Thursday. Please try to adhere to the conference times as any conferences during the school day takes away from instructional class time of all students. Also, please note that conferences are 10 minutes in length to accommodate all families over these two days.

Progress reports will be sent home with students on Wednesday, Nov. 18th.

There is no school this Wednesday, Nov. 11th.

Our middle school will leave for an overnight camping trip this Thursday to Friday! We look forward to low and high ropes courses, a vigorous nature hike, archery, and evening campfires. Please make sure that students bring plenty of warm clothes even though we will have heated cabins. This should be a great learning experience for our students.
