

MLK BULLETIN

Tuesday, October 27th

Stay tuned every Tuesday for the MLK Bulletin

The USDA Fruit & Vegetable Program is back! The program makes fruit and vegetable snacks available at no cost to all children in select schools. Students enjoyed the bananas and pears last week, and we look forward to another year of healthy afternoon snacks.

Mismatch Day, Friday, October 30th, is a traditional school spirit day. Students and staff are encouraged to come dressed in mismatched clothing! Some classroom teachers may also have activities permitting appropriate Halloween costumes. If you have any reservations about such activities, please contact your child's teacher and an alternate activity will be provided.

*

Good luck to the 8th grade as they will be seeing a performance at the Central Square Theatre this Tuesday at 11am.

*

Good luck to Ms. Corpas's first grade as they visit the Harvard Museum of Natural History on Friday, October 30th, from 8:30-11:30AM.

There will be a Room Parent and MLK Ambassadors Breakfast on Tuesday, November 3rd from 8-9AM.

*

All flu clinics have been postponed until further notice.

The Week Ahead

Tuesday, October 27th- School Pictures

Friday, October 30th- Mismatch Day and Middle School Dance (6:30PM-8:30PM)

More information is also available online at www.cpsd.us/mlk

The free Before School Basketball Program is up and running. Students with good behavior and homework completion in grades 4-8 may play basketball from 7-7:45AM on Tuesdays to Thursdays. This is a great and healthy way to start the day!
