

CAMBRIDGESPEDPAC

Linking parents of Cambridge students with disabilities

September 2006

Dear Parents:

Greetings from the Cambridge Parent Advisory Council on Special Education ("CAMBRIDGESPEDPAC"). We are an all volunteer group of parents of Cambridge students with disabilities. Under Massachusetts law, our role includes:

- Advising the school committee on matters pertaining to the education and safety of Cambridge students with disabilities.
- Meeting regularly with school officials to participate in the planning, development, and evaluation of CPS special education programs.

Our regular meetings are:

Second Wednesday of each month, October - June
7 p.m., CRLS (high school), 459 Broadway
All are welcome!

Please check the CPS website for updates on our meeting schedule and speakers. To join our parent email listserv, send an email to:
