<sup>3</sup> Please contact your teacher to schedule the AAPPL or portfolio; ASL students will schedule an interview.

<sup>5</sup> Please check with Desirée Phillips if you take the MCAS through the Portfolio option based on IEP accommodations. Qualifying ELA MCAS scores include: Score 220-238 EPP Option/ACCESS; Score 240-259 Seal of Biliteracy; Score 260+ Seal of Biliteracy with Distinction.

<sup>6</sup> For students who have a qualifying high score on both the ELA MCAS and the AP or AAPPL, the Seal of Biliteracy with Distinction will be awarded. See www.cpsd.us/departments/world\_languages/seal\_of\_biliteracy/crls for additional details.
